Submit to Denise Leydig
594 Cumberland Hwy
Berlin, PA 15530
farm2cruise92@gmail.com

PURPOSE:

To recognize a young farm (and/or agribusiness) person or couple for outstanding community service. To stimulate young farm (and/or agribusiness) persons or couples to participate and accept leadership roles in all types of community service.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION CHECKLIST:

E-mail completed application by January 10th. If a question does not apply to your operation or involvement please mark - N/A (Not Applicable). Use additional pages if necessary. A chapter may submit only one application in each category.

A series of twelve (12) slides must be submitted with this application. These slides should include pictures of the family, farmstead, major enterprises, equipment, activities, innovations, items of interest, and others. The slides should be emailed or copied to a flash drive and mailed.

— Write a 2-3 sentence description about each slide and write a 1-2 paragraph bio. The slide description and bio should be e-mailed to farm2cruise92@gmail.com

ELIGIBILITY CHECKLIST:

Contest open to singles or couples. Applicant must be a member of a Young Farmer program; spouse may or may not be a member.

State dues must be paid for the year the application is submitted.

Applicant was not a prior state winner in this category.

- » Chapter winners will compete for state honors.
- » The State winning individual or couple will receive $250 and registration for the PYFA Winter Conference. If the winner attends the banquet, he/ she will receive a PYFA jacket. The State runner up will receive $100 and conference registration.

BASIS OF SELECTION:

The selection of the young farm (and/or agribusiness) person or couple will be determined by their participation in local community agriculture, civic, charitable, church, political, social organizations and activities during the past five consecutive calendar years preceding the PYFA Institute.
